

Life of Terry.

A History of David S. Terry's life is soon to be issued. It has been written by A. E. Wagstaff, formerly of The News staff. Mr. Wagstaff is a consistent Republican, while everybody knows that Terry was a typical Democrat. The author claims, however, to have made a close study of Terry and his characteristics, and declares that his equal cannot be found either among the pioneer or latter day Californians for intellectual strength or physical stamina. The News will be glad to see produced a book that shall do justice to the memory of Terry. He was wrong in some things, no doubt—few men can always be right—but many of his erratic doings sprang from a realization of the injustice that he felt himself suffering under. He was one case in which many Californians refused to be fair. It all grew out of the duel with Broderick. Some of the adherents of the dead man pretended to think that Terry had taken an undue advantage—that there was something wrong with Broderick's pistol or something of that character. No one intimately connected with Broderick ever made such a statement. An attempt was made to have it appear that Leonidas Haskell held to the opinion that Broderick did not have square treatment, but that gentleman would not sanction the statement. When Terry was on trial at San Rafael for the killing of Broderick, the witnesses, including Haskell, took good care not to arrive until the case had been submitted to a jury and a verdict of "not guilty" rendered. This would not have taken place if at that time there was even a suspicion of unfairness on the part of Terry or his seconds.

It is true that Terry was a man of violent temper, but he was brave and honorable. If he had been killed, instead of Broderick, his spirit would not have sanctioned any unjust aspersions of the man at whose hand he fell.—Sacramento News.

As will be seen elsewhere, Bill Nye had a fall, a distance of fifteen feet, onto some lumber. It is said that he fell on purpose so that he could write and speak on the subject as one who had secured a little practical experience. Had he fallen a few feet further, however, an obituary would have been in order. Nye is a great lover of realism.

Gov. Markham, of California, has decided that the extradition treaty with Canada does not cover the case of Boss Buckley. Secretary Blaine will be asked to intervene in the matter and request Canada, as a matter of courtesy, to surrender Buckley.

The purchase and absorption of "America," the vigorous exponent of American principles, by the Chicago Graphic, has given a further impetus to the remarkable growth which this now celebrated illustrated weekly of the West has experienced.

Old Boreas made some large personal endeavors yesterday to land a storm in Carson and paint things white, but finally gave up in disgust at not being able to get it away from the mountains.

Improvements.

The grading and filling of Main street in front of the Government building and the laying of new sewers around it betokens the final appearance of a magnificent building in the heart of the city. By next spring when the grass is green and the new street bed is hardened it will be a pleasure to gaze upon it.

There is considerable complaint among the guards who shoot at the range on account of boys playing around in the fields beyond, but in range of the bullets. Should a ball pass over the bulkheads there is no telling where it may strike, and as Frank Collins is practicing weekly, this may at any time occur.

Governor Colcord issued commissions yesterday to the following militia officers: David Ryan, First Lieut.; Jacob Gosse, Second Lieutenant and Ben C. Haas, Junior Second Lieut., all of the National Guard, Virginia; also to Chas. E. Wiley, First Lieut., and Frank Bryant, Second Lieut. of Company F., Carson Guard.

Don't forget the Lunch on December 11th. Fine chicken salad, hot biscuit, delicious coffee and many other good things, all for 50 cents.

The Chicago Fair.

Are you going to the World's Fair? Everybody is going if able. And now everybody is able, because an incorporation has been formed in Chicago, composed of the leading citizens and most responsible men there, and they offer the most enticing inducements at the cheapest possible rates. They sell a ticket for $131, that absolutely covers everything, on the installment plan. This certificate entitles the holder to first class transportation to and from Chicago from Carson during the Fair, transportation to and from depot and hotels for self and baggage, six admissions to the Fair with your lunch on the grounds, fourth, first class board and lodging for six days in their own commodious hotels and lastly their competent guides will see that all holders are shown around and miss nothing. Think of the crowded condition of Chicago during the fair and then of the ease and comfort of this method.

Only $131 for everything and that as follows: $6 down at time of signing contract, balance in equal monthly installments from time of signing till April 1st, 1893.

It is a good bank company as holders may have their money back at any time, less the first six for expenses, etc. Certificates are transferable and non-forfeitable.

If you are interested get and read one of the small hand circulars. Agent in Carson
